

Stroganoff Day

11th March 2020

Beef Stroganoff

Or

Mushroom Stroganoff

Both served with Rice

Followed By

Pavlova

Fun Food Fact:

The commonly accepted history of Beef Stroganoff is that a French chef who worked for a wealthy St. Petersburg family created the dish for a cooking contest in 1891. Following the Russian custom of the day, he named the prize-winning dish for his employer, Count Pavel Alexandrovich Stroganov!

Allergens:

Main: Wheat

Veg: Wheat

Dessert: Egg, Dairy

Allergens correct at the time of print. Menus and allergens will be on request and displayed in the canteen a week before.*

LONGHILL
HIGH SCHOOL